Imagination Celebration Launches its 10th Season of Over the Moon Family Theater

Colorado Springs, CO – Imagination Celebration is launching its 10th season of bringing literacy-based family theater to the Pikes Peak Center stage with the announcement of its 2010/2011 Over the Moon Family Theater season. Featured productions this season include “If You Give a Cat a Cupcake”; “Tales to Tell: A Musical Mashup”; and “Pippi Longstocking”. Season tickets for the Over the Moon Family Theater line-up are now available at the Pikes Peak Center Box Office, online, or by phone.

For each Over the Moon Family Theater experience, families are encouraged to don their favorite jammies and join us at 6:00pm in the Pikes Peak Center lobby to engage in family fun. Activities include Imagination Celebration’s signature hands-on projects, meeting special surprise guests, exploring activity stations throughout Imagination on the Mezzanine, and shopping for creative gift items. Each child is given a FREE keepsake IC PlayBook packed with more activities to do at home. The performance begins at 7:00 and is followed up by free bedtime treats!

If You Give a Cat a Cupcake - Monday, November 1, 2010

First there was the Mouse – then the Pig – now, here comes the Cat! Based on the newest installment in the zany If You Give A... book series by Laura Numeroff, the Omaha Theater Company brings this madcap world premiere production with music to the stage.

Tales to Tell: A Musical Mashup - Thursday, February 10, 2011

What happens when you blend beloved children’s classical tales, modern stories, fairy tales, and a sprinkling wave of a wand by the Fairy Godmother of the Arts? You get a kaleidoscope of delightful stories, characters, and life lessons all coming together in the most unusual way!

Pippi Longstocking - Tuesday, April 26, 2011

Pipilotta Delicatessa Windowshade Macrelmint Ephraim’s Daughter Longstocking – that’s her full name, but everyone calls her “Pippi”, including her new friend, Annika. And that’s where the story begins! This musical is based on the beloved series by author Astrid Lindgren and produced by American Family Theater.
